

Katelyn Petrie, MS, CCC-SLP/L

Katelyn is a licensed speech-language pathologist specializing in pediatric treatment. Her undergraduate degree in Communication Sciences and Disorders was from Augustana College in Rock Island, IL and she received her her master's degree from Eastern Illinois University in Charleston, IL in 2010. She has experience with several populations including; developmental delay, language and auditory processing disorders, apraxia, articulation/phonology disorders, expressive/receptive language disorders, stuttering, autism spectrum disorders, and feeding disorders. Katelyn currently lives in Cary, IL and enjoys spending time with her family.